

Kia creates a new SUV segment with Syros starting at Rs. 8.99 lakhs

Pondicherry, Feb 4: Kia India, a leading mass-premium automaker, has introduced a new SUV segment between the mid and compact SUV categories with the launch of the all-new Kia Syros at an attractive price of 8.99 lacs. Drawing design inspiration from its premium models EV9 and Carnival, the Syros combines cutting-edge technology, premium comfort, and a bold design to create a unique value proposition for Indian consumers.

Kia Syros brings a segment-first Over-the-Air (OTA) software update system, allowing automatic updates of 16 controllers without requiring a dealership visit—an innovation typically found in luxury vehicles.

The Kia Connect 2.0 system offers an extensive suite of 80+ features, enhancing the driving experience through seamless connectivity and intelligent vehicle management.

as tyre replacements and maintenance, ensuring worry-free ownership.

Joonsu Cho, Chief Sales Officer, Kia India, said "The Kia Syros represents the next evolution in our portfolio – a new species of SUV that blends advanced technology, exceptional comfort, and bold design. What sets it apart is the use of sustainable materials in its interiors, demonstrating our commitment to a greener future. Despite this, the Kia Syros offers a strong value proposition, delivering premium features and unmatched quality that resonate with the aspirations of modern Indian drivers."
